

Mark Wolfson

Producer/Songwriter/Developer/A&R

Mark hails from Chi Town and moved to Los Angeles early on for the warmth of the California sun and now with time spent in New York as well. From the beginning of Mark's career he could see the possibilities music presented to touch people and give back something people could take with them wherever they went. The spirit, along with opportunity, patience to persevere, the stamina to build skills, and the foresight to see the path ahead have brought Mark over 25 Gold, Platinum and 3x/6x Platinum record awards.

Since starting in music studying piano, cello, guitar and singing, Mark made his production debut in 1972 and worked with such Artists as: Smokey Robinson, Kim Carnes, Ice T and Talking Heads, and on such films as: That Thing You Do, Silence of the Lambs, Philadelphia My Big Fat Greek Wedding, Mamma Mia (the film) and Mi Vida Loca.

Mark was Director of Production and Development for Playtone/Epic Records for the last 7 years through April of 2008 until the duties for Mark's production company, Reel Entertainment, LLC and his association with Hit Music Link took his full attention. As Reel Entertainment, LLC Mark has worked independently to develop unsigned bands like: Jane Child, Mighty Joe Young (STP), School of Fish and Lions and Ghosts, just to name a few. Mark has helped many a Band/Artist forge a solid career in entertainment maintaining the highest production standards and focusing on longevity, in Mark's words; "Getting there is one thing, but staying there is quite another".

Mark has also working with New Directions, a homeless Veterans organization to fund their ongoing efforts to help Vets incorporate themselves back into society, Tipitina's Foundation to put music back in the schools in New Orleans and America's Wounded Heroes/First Aid for our troops to help returning troop with injuries return to civilian life.
